

LAPCAT / TRICKSTER TRICKSTER

The inter-continental trio known as Lapcat, comprised of Cate Coslor, the Coyote Wrestler and Jean Jaques, combines Swiss cool with American fun. Born out of a shared love of creative expression, and drawing inspirations from everyday life, Lapcat takes diverse past influences and goes somewhere new. With sounds ranging from melodic vocals and electronic beats, to hip-hop rhythms and sparse instrumentals, the music they make is like dark chocolate with chile: bittersweet and spicy. Lapcat's debut album, Trickster Trickster, is set for release September 21st.

It is a love story across two continents, written in the spaces between Santa Fe, NM and Zurich. Mixed by the talented Neil Comber and mastered by Mazen Murad from Metropolis Studios, London, these fourteen tracks are not the sad songs of heartbreak, but rather the spunky and wild sounds of heart-healing. Moving lyrics and spirited instrumentals create the feeling of traveling to far away places only to find yourself finally at home with the ones you love.
